

Seiche Water Technology Group Ltd encompassing Seiche Ltd, AutoNaut Ltd and Ashridge Engineering Ltd is committed to the implementation and ongoing maintenance and improvement of our ISO 9001 quality management system.

Through our daily activities to design and manufacture equipment and software for control, measurement, mitigation and modelling across the offshore energy, construction, utilities, marine science and defence sectors we are committed to...

- Meeting and exceeding the needs of our customers
- Compliance with all applicable legal and regulatory requirements
- Increasing operational efficiency
- Setting continual improvement objectives
- Monitoring and measuring our performance
- Developing our staff
- Reviewing, identifying and addressing quality enhancing resource requirements
- Creating and complying with quality processes, policies and procedures as required
- Controlling of our suppliers and assuring their same commitment to quality